

USC Alumni “USC Old Scholars’ Association” Standard Collection Notice

1. The USC Old Scholars’ Association (“USCOSA”) may collect personal information about you from time to time. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable us to inform you about our activities and the activities of University Senior College (“USC” or “the School”) and to keep alumni members informed about other members.
2. We require the information referred to above to enable us to continue your membership of USCOSA.
3. As you know, from time to time we engage in fundraising activities. The information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be used by University Senior College to assist in its fundraising activities. If you do not agree to this, please advise us now.
4. USCOSA may publish details about you in its publications and on the School's website. If you do not agree to this you must advise us now.
5. The School's Privacy Policy contains details of how you may seek access to personal information collected about you or how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 and the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012.
6. A copy of the Privacy Policy will be made available to you on request and can also be accessed via the USC website at <https://usc.adelaide.edu.au>
7. USCOSA and/or the School may store personal information in the 'cloud', which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated outside Australia.
8. If you provide USCOSA and/or the School with the personal information of others, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to USCOSA and/or the School and why, that they can access that information if they wish and that USCOSA and/or the School does not usually disclose this information to third parties.
